

From the Co-Pastors

When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. ²And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. ³They had been saying to one another, “Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?” ⁴When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. ⁵As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. ⁶But he said to them, “Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. ⁷But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you.”

Mark 16: 1-7

As we move through this Easter season, we are reminded how important it is to remember and tell the story of hope in this narrative from the Gospel of Mark. The last few weeks have been filled with acts of terror in houses of worship. We have been shocked by the church burnings in Louisiana, the bombings in Sri Lanka, and the shooting at the Synagogue in San Diego. We search for meaning as we ask one another how do we respond to a world filled with so much racism and hate.

This past month we at First Church had the opportunity to read Dr. James Cone’s book, The Cross and the Lynching Tree. In that book, Cone says, “The church’s most vexing problem today is how to define itself by the gospel of Jesus’ cross.” How does the church bear witness to the power of life in the midst of a world awash in violence, lethal inequity and the impoverishment of bodies and souls? How does the church witness to the resurrection without being oblivious of those suffering on the cross or a tree?

We must continue to tell the story with all of its beauty and all of its violence because it is the only way that we can respond. We must tell the whole story because it will provide the hope, grace, peace, and justice for Love to Win, today, tomorrow, and for generations to come.

Peace in Christ,
Katherine and Rob

The Sacrament of

COMMUNION

will be Served the First Sunday of May

The Sacrament of Holy Communion (sacred sign revealing God's Word) is ordained by Christ. Holy Communion is also known as the Lord's Supper, the Breaking of Bread, and the Eucharist. Communion is served (gluten-free bread) by "intinction" - adults and children are invited to come forward to receive the elements. If you, for whatever reason, are unable to come forward, communion will be served to you where you are seated

Wanting to reach us?

Katherine and Rob are most often in the church office Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday mornings. Other times are spent in visitation, study groups, and committee and community meetings.

If you have not received a response, please contact us again – sometimes emails will get caught in cyberspace or in the server that routes the emails. If you would like to talk to us by phone, and we are not currently at the church, you can leave a message with the office. We can also be reached more immediately by cell phone: 558-4453 (Katherine) or 558-8464 (Rob). Please do not hesitate to contact us as needed during an emergency or time of crisis.

Sharing Pastoral Concerns

If you have a pastoral concern for yourself, a family member, or friend, please contact Katherine or Rob. We do not necessarily receive notification of hospital stays. Please contact us or the church directly - we want to know how you are doing!

If you have a prayer concern that you would like to have in the weekly prayer list in the bulletin, please contact Kenra (church secretary) in the church office at 362-5569. This list is periodically reviewed. If a name is removed but desired to remain on or be placed back on, please contact Kenra.

from Director of Music/Organist

I would like to thank the Cathedral Choir for their hard work and dedication. They spent hours in rehearsal throughout Lent. Their hard work paid off with lovely music every Sunday. The music for Maundy Thursday was especially beautiful. Easter Sunday was special as well.

I also want to thank Gerrit Randall-Klouw for playing trumpet on Easter Sunday. What a lovely and joyous addition to our worship services.

As you see choir members and Gerrit when you are out and about, please thank them. I know you appreciate them as much as I do.

Regina Gabriel

From the Maintenance Corner

As we look forward to packing the sweaters away and leaving the winter jackets in the closet, we reflect on the Lenten season that culminated, of course, in the joyous celebration of Easter – the Resurrection of the Lord.

We offer our sincere thanks each day for all of the blessings we have and they are all around us – our families and friends, the opportunity to serve others, opportunities to grow as a person, doing a good deed for someone, the opportunity to worship freely – the list of blessings are too numerous to count. Listen for the Good News and give thanks.

The Property Committee is working on choosing the replacement floor covering for the hallway, CE office, and cove base in the restrooms. Other projects that are in the planning/progress stages include repair of the concrete steps on the side entrance, an (annual) exterior inspection of the building, (annual) parking lot maintenance, a second phase of lighting (LED) conversion in parts of the building, and improvements to the sanctuary lighting.

Observations, suggestions, ideas?

Please feel free to contact me - my door is always open.

“Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it. Except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.”

Lord, let me be a living link

That forms a constant chain of prayers.

May every word I say or think
Evidence that I am one who cares.

May my position in the chain
Be proven well. Let me be strong
To help when sorrow or when pain
Has ruttet deep, has tarried long.

Lord, make the chain of prayers long
Until the word can feel its power,
And forge my link that I be strong to bear the burdens of the hours.

- Edna Schultz

Those of you who may have special prayer request are asked to phone anyone on the Prayer Chain or the church office (362-5569) They will in turn phone Lettie Torrey who will then call a 'lead' person on each part of the chain.

IT'S TIME!!
Lake Erie Presbytery Youth are Getting Reading for an Amazing Summer!
PRESBYTERIAN YOUTH TRIENNIUM
July 16 – 20 at Purdue University
MONTREAT MIDDLE SCHOOL CONFERENCE
July 16 – 21 at Maryville College

Youth from First Church and others in Lake Erie Presbytery had some amazing experiences last summer at the Montreat Youth Conference and the Montreat Middle School Conference. The Montreat Youth Conferences have been providing a space for young people to explore faith, build relationships with other young people from across the country, and strengthen their home faith communities for decades. 2019 is the year for the Presbyterian Youth Triennium, which gathers 6,000 young people from the Presbyterian Church (USA), Cumberland Presbyterian Churches, and church partners from around the world, for a week at Purdue University.

What does a day at a youth conference look like? It begins with a gathering of 600 (at the Montreat Middle School Conference) – 6,000 (at Triennium) young people in the auditorium for energizers, music, and a keynote – exploring a theme and scripture in all kinds of creative ways – multimedia, drama, storytelling, and more. Keynote is followed by a morning and an afternoon time with a small group, made up of 20-30 young people from different churches. There are afternoon and evening recreation events – past years have included a water day with firetrucks, a color run, variety show, outdoor giant games like jenga and four square in the air, escape rooms and more. Evenings include worship services in the auditorium with more creative expressions of faith.

Young people who will be in grade 9 – 12 in the fall of 2019 or graduating seniors may register for the Presbyterian Youth Triennium as part of a delegation with Lake Erie Presbytery. The theme is “Here’s My Heart” and it will be an indescribable opportunity to gather with young people from all over the world. Triennium will be held July 16 – 20 at Purdue University (we will depart on July 15).

We will attend the middle school conference July 16 – 21. The theme is “For Such a Time as This.” The middle school youth conference is for youth who will enter grades 6 through 9 in the fall of 2019 (current 5th – 8th grade youth).

More information about the conferences is available at www.montreat.org <http://presbyterianyouthtriennium.org>. Registration forms are available in the church office and on the church website. With financial support from the Presbytery of Lake Erie and from First Church, youth cost is $250. Additional scholarship assistance will be available as needed – we want as many youth to go as possible!
